

Hounds Oppose C. U. In Tourney Opener Tonight

Tonight at Mt. St. Mary's, the Hound Hoopsters will open their bid for the Mason-Dixon Cage crown. In the back of every Loyola fan's mind is a Hound-Mt. St. Mary's tourney final but before Loyola can possibly get another crack at the Mounties, it will have to overcome a few large obstacles, beginning tonight with Catholic University.

The Cardinals, who cannot be taken lightly, boast an 8-5 M-D log and a balanced attack with four players averaging double figures—Gene Jasper, Bill Leahy, Walt Skinner, and Gene Horan. This quartet gave Loyola its toughest game of the season in the only previous meeting between the two squads. In that contest, the Hounds eked out that memorable 4 overtime period, 100-98 victory.

The Hounds don't figure on the game being so close this time, however. With both the diversified Hound attack and the Loyola fans firing on all cylinders, the Loyola steamroller will start crashing toward the finals.

Frosh Hoopsters Play Big Role In Hound Story

This Basketball season has provided many surprises for everyone. Perhaps, the most surprised person has been Coach Nap Doherty. Nap knew that the freshmen would provide depth for the team, but he never realized that they would be such an important factor.

Marty Maher and Pat Flynn, the "Young Philadelphians", have become 2 of the starting quint. Hailing from St. Joseph's Prep., Marty has aided the Hounds with his excellent shooting and never ending drive. From West Catholic High School, Pat has jumped his way to fame as one of the Hound's best rebounders.

Bill Morris, from St. Mary's High School in Connecticut, has contributed his talents both to the B-Squad team and the and the Varsity Team.

From Loyola of New York, Mike McCarthy has come to Loyola and made his mark as High scorer for the B-Squad and when called on, he has made timely contributions to the varsity Team.

Loyola Veterans Sponsor Strong Hound Season

One of the prime factors in the success of this season's Hound Cage squad has been the fine play of all the Hound veterans. Charley O'Donnell has sparkled in the playmaker role. Clutch scoring and rebounding are synonymous with Jody Satterfield. Captain Tony Torba has turned in consistently sharp defensive work. Rival coaches rave at Steve Bogusky's marksmanship. Don Wallenhorst has been a big pointmaker week after week.

A number of other Hound vets have provided a strong bench. Coach Nap Doherty has made the most of it with his frequent juggling acts. John Kilkenny, Phil Potter and Alex Cummings, all good shots, have come off the bench on a number of occasions to lead scoring surges. George Yurek is a calculating playmaker, cool under fire. Billy Carew is a tough man under the boards.

Combined with a strong freshman crop, all of these veterans have had something to do with the Hound's 9-3 record.

Hounds' Tournament Hopes High

This season marks Bill Klarner's twelfth as Loyola's swimming coach. During this time, the Hounds have copped six Mason-Dixon Swim titles. The coach hopes to hang up number seven this weekend in the tournament at Gallaudet.

Ken Friemuth has been the Hounds' top performer in all three of his seasons at Loyola. This year Ken broke the all-time scoring record with a total of 271.25 points eclipsing the old mark of Lou McComas.

Loyola Swimmers Seek Second Consecutive Title

This afternoon, at Gallaudet College in Washington, the Mason-Dixon Swimming Tournament will get underway. Loyola is defending champ by virtue of its 135-134 conquest of American U. in last season's finale.

The Hounds Ken Friemuth, last year's Tourney standout, is the defending individual champ in 3 different events—the 200 yd. butterfly and breastroke and the 100 yd. breastroke. Loyola's two ace freestylers, Marty Pilsch and Al Kubelius, are defending individual titlists in the 440 and 220 yd. freestyles respectively. Vic Corbin, the Greyhounds' fine diver, should be a favorite to cop his event. Record breaking Freshman Tippy Cronin will be a man to watch in the butterfly contests. Loyola's other stickout Freshmen, backstroker Joe Doyle and diver Skip Seward, should also do well, as should Hound vets Jim Burns, Tom Jeffers, Bill Brooks and Joe Metz. Seniors Jim Sydnor and Jerry Preis will be out to close their careers with a big splash in their final appearance.

American U., who handed the Hounds their only conference loss (48-47) will be the big obstacle to another Loyola team title.

Loyola Grapplers Rated As Tournament Threat

Tomorrow the Hound Grapplers will travel down Charles Street to the Homewood Campus of Johns Hopkins University where this year's Mason-Dixon Wrestling Tournament is being held. Loyola, Conference dual-meet Champs with a 5-1 record should easily better their fifth place finish in last year's Tourney. A mat title would be a big order for the young (only two seniors) Hound squad and their rookie Coach Charlie Carey but as the Greyhound has said earlier in the year, Loyola's wrestlers have been pulling surprises all year long and the biggest one of all could be this weekend.

Two Hound grapplers will go into the Tourney with unblemished 6-0 records. They are Alex Schlipp, last year's 137 lb. champ and Tom Milligan. Three other Loyola men—Bish Baker, Wade Emmett and Colin Delpi have dropped only one match. Chief team competition for Loyola should come from A. U. and B. U. The Hounds' only loss was to the Bees.

Hound wrestling captain Charley Graham, along with his senior teammate Mike Buchness, will be making his last appearance for Loyola on the mat. Charley, a three sport athlete, is also president of the Block 'L' club.

Charley Carey in his first year as Loyola's mat coach led his squad to the first dual-meet title in Loyola history. During his student days at Loyola, Charley posted a 24-8 mat record as a 191 pounder.

Below are listed the point totals scored by all of the Hound swimmers during the dual meet season.
